Lectionary Readings

Wisdom of Solomon 3:1-9 Those who have died are at peace with God.
or

Isaiah 25:6-9 The Lord promises to swallow up death and wipe away tears.
Psalm 24 The Lord is the King of glory, established over all creation.
Revelation 21:1-6a In the new Jerusalem, death and pain will be no more.
John 11:32-44 Jesus weeps for Lazarus, then raises him from the dead.

Call to Worship

Death is swallowed up forever—let us wipe away our tears.

We remember with thanksgiving all those who are dear to us.

Our ancestors in faith have laid the foundation for this day.

We remember with appreciation those who paved the way with their faith.

Teachers, leaders, grandmothers and grandfathers, parents and friends.

We remember with gratitude God's gifts of people.

The gifts of many people make us who we are.

We remember with love and honor the people who blessed us with their lives.

God brings a new heaven and a new earth—let us live with great hope.

We look to the future in peace, even as we remember the past.

Prayer of Confession

Eternal God, you promise to dwell with us forever.
You promise to wipe away every tear from our eyes.
Through the prophet Isaiah you invite your people to a feast of rich food and well-aged wines.
We are slow to rejoice in your promises.
We are inattentive to the communion of saints surrounding us.

O God, forgive us and quicken our hearts.

Help us to believe your promises and live into them,
sustained by all the faithful who live with you in glory.
